Want to infuse your orientation with short videos offering fresh, positive and unexpected content? Consider letting us ask some of your students, faculty and staff questions like these...

Students

What was the biggest surprise for you when you arrived on campus?

What do you do that has helped you be successful in the classroom?

If there was one thing about your freshman year that you would change, what would it be?

What one resource on campus has been the most helpful to you?

Based on your experience, what advice would you give to incoming freshmen?

What's one thing you've learned here that you think you'll always remember?

What do you want to do after you graduate?

Is there someone here on campus who you'd like to thank for anything?

Faculty & Staff

What advice would you give to incoming freshmen?

What do you wish new students knew?

What's the most common mistake you see incoming freshmen make?

What expectations do you have for students in your classes?

How can new students get the most from their experience here?
